LIVERMORE VALLEY WINERIES WILL BEGIN TO REOPEN JUNE 19 FIND DETAILS AT LVWINE.ORG/EVENTS

Advance reservations and purchase of meal with wine tasting is required

Livermore Valley, Calif. (June 17, 2020)— In accordance with state and county guidelines, the more than 50 wineries of historic Livermore Valley Wine Country located less than an hour from San Francisco and Silicon Valley will begin to reopen for wine tasting on Friday, June 19, 2020. Advance reservations are required (no more than 6 people) and each tasting must be accompanied by a meal enjoyed outdoors. Wineries are allowed to partner with a permitted food truck or use their own commercial kitchen to produce the meals. Individual winery reopening details are being posted by the wineries at LVwine.org/events.

“Our local wine community is thrilled to be able to welcome guests back to Livermore Valley Wine Country, just in time to toast the beginning of summer,” said Chris Chandler, executive director of the Livermore Valley Winegrowers Association. “We’ve missed everyone and know we can all work together to stay safe and healthy.”
