LIVERMORE DOWNTOWN
Where Brilliance Thrives!

Celebrate California Wine Month in Downtown Livermore with No Corkage Fees!

Alameda County District 1 Supervisor David Haubert partners with Livermore Downtown Inc and the Livermore Valley Vintners & Growers Wine Community to bring excitement and support to our Livermore Wine Country!

Livermore, CA - Alameda County Supervisor David Haubert, Livermore Downtown Inc and the Livermore Valley Wine Community are thrilled to launch a pilot program in celebration of September's California Wine Month. During September, Alameda County Supervisor David Haubert is partnering with local non-profit organizations, Livermore Downtown Inc and Livermore Valley Vintners & Growers Wine Community, to support local dining establishments and Livermore wineries by encouraging patrons to bring in a bottle of their favorite Livermore produced wine to enjoy at participating downtown Livermore eateries. This exciting pilot program will drum up enthusiasm for purchasing Livermore produced wine and enjoying it while dining in downtown Livermore in September. The initiative encourages keeping your wine and dine dollars right here in our community!

"As a non-profit, community support is paramount. We are grateful to Supervisor Haubert for supporting this special program as it is a great opportunity to cross market and promote our Downtown businesses and our Livermore wine partners" said Livermore Downtown Inc Executive Director Ruby Lopez-Villarreal. "By collaborating our marketing efforts we can encourage and incentivize Bay Area residents to shop Livermore local wines and dine with Livermore local restaurants to a much larger audience, making a bigger positive economic impact together."

This collaborative partnership will provide an economic boost to downtown Livermore dining establishments and the Livermore Valley Wine Industry. "As the County Supervisor that oversees the beautiful Livermore Valley Wine Region and the thriving downtown Livermore food scene, I am pleased to connect these two economic drivers of our region and elevate collaboration between them through a partnership with Livermore Downtown Inc and the Livermore Valley Wine Community and their leaders and boards of directors" said Alameda County District 1 Supervisor David Haubert.

The Livermore Valley Wine Community is thrilled to partner with Livermore Downtown Inc and Alameda County Supervisor David Haubert to offer this promotion of Livermore Valley produced wines during California's Wine Month Celebration in September. "We are constantly amazed and grateful for the unwavering support that Alameda County Supervisor David Haubert's office and our downtown partners give to the local wine region. We are excited to be part of this pilot program and look forward to sipping through September with our community!" said Brandi Lombardi, Executive Director of Livermore Valley Wine Community.

The corkage waiver program runs from September 1st, 2024 through September 30th, 2024. Bring a bottle of Livermore produced wine into a participating downtown Livermore dining establishment and have your 1st corkage fee waived, limit 1 fee waived per party! We encourage locals and tourists alike to come experience the best of the Livermore Valley Wine Country by enjoying a bottle with family and friends in the Heart of Downtown Livermore.
