

BRENT AMOS

WINEMAKER AT LAS POSITAS VINEYARDS

WHAT WINE VARIETAL DO YOU THINK IS UNDERRATED?

Mourvedre, though it is seeing a rise in popularity right now.

WHAT'S YOUR FAVORITE PART ABOUT THE LIVERMORE VALLEY AS A WINE REGION?

The camaraderie between all the wineries. It feels like we are all part of the same family and working towards the same goals of excellence and recognition for the valley as a whole.

HOW INVOLVED DO YOU GET IN THE VINEYARDS?

Extremely involved. I am in the vineyards on a daily basis during the growing season (I'm a control freak).

WHAT'S SOMETHING NO ONE KNOWS ABOUT YOU?

A lot. I'm a very private person, I don't like attention.

WHAT DID YOU WANT TO BE GROWING UP?

Could never settle; Psychiatrist, Engineer, Chef, Winemaker (I'm still growing up, I'll let you know when I decide).

WHEN YOU ARE ALL WINE-D OUT, WHAT IS YOUR DRINK OF CHOICE?

Either a Gin and Tonic or a Martini (Vodka or Gin depending on my mood).

WHAT WOULD A WORLD POPULATED BY CLONES OF YOU BE LIKE?

Scary as hell, no one wants that.

"It feels like we are all part of the same family and working towards the same goals of excellence and recognition for the valley as a whole."

HISTORY

Our family venture began when Lisa and Lothar Maier purchased a 20 acre vineyard located on Kalthoff Commons in the southwest corner of the Livermore Valley in January 2006. We decided that the existing vineyard was not up to our standards. That year, we pulled the existing vines and tilled the soil so as to break the hardpan barrier that resides below the surface of this region. We then planted small parcels in different clones of Cabernet Sauvignon, Malbec, Petit Verdot, Tempranillo, Barbera, Petite Sirah and Chardonnay. Our labor of love began in earnest.

With our passion and efforts devoted to the vines, we believed that the name of our winery and vineyard needed to be true to the rich heritage of the Livermore Valley. Thus, we began to search through local history books and maps to find the perfect inspirational name for our endeavor. In our research, we learned that Robert Livermore named his original 40,000 acre property Rancho Las Positas because of the many streams and watering holes that coursed through the land.

Today, Las Positas Vineyards is a family winery that produces small lots of estate grown wines with unique character and exceptional quality. Visit us and enjoy our wines and spectacular vineyard views.

WINES & VINES

Las Positas Vineyards is dedicated to the marriage of Old World craftsmanship and New World pioneer spirit in the production of world class wines from our estate in California's historic Livermore Valley AVA. We offer small lots of handcrafted wines that epitomize our commitment to the earth and her fruit.
